

Job Description

Librarian

Overview

Hosting with a slant towards organised quizzes, games, debates and activities - including maintaining the onboard library.

joint responsibilities

- In conjunction with the hosting team you will be responsible for:
- Ensuring consistently high levels of passenger satisfaction
- Being a visible and social presence around the ship
- Assisting the Cruise Director with, and supplying ideas for the daily events and entertainment
- Tour escorting as required by Shore-Excursion Manager
- Ensuring tidiness of entertainment storage areas
- Monitoring passenger feedback and reporting issues where necessary
- Embark / Disembark duties
- Assist with Tender operation and duties as required
- Assist Stage Manager when required (spots etc)

sole responsibilities

- Maintenance of the onboard library including levying of fines for unreturned books
- Manning regular opening times for both the reference and free libraries
- Presenting game shows, quizzes and demonstrations with confidence, style and intelligence
- Advertising and selling CMV books
- Management of card room and extended facilities in other rooms
- Distribution of daily quizzes and crosswords.
- Organising debates, collective play and poetry readings

Adding depth, intelligence and freshness to the onboard activities
Any other duties as required or specified by your line manager line management

Reporting directly to Cruise Director

Notes

Point person for cerebral and 'quiet' activities, this position has tremendous scope for anyone to find their own niche. It could include cabaret performance, lectures, classical music appreciation etc. Easily one of the most visible people on the ship - especially for the discerning passenger.